Presented by the
MARTINAIRE Staff
Martin Collège
Pulaski, Tennessee

Martin Hall . . . The hub of the college.

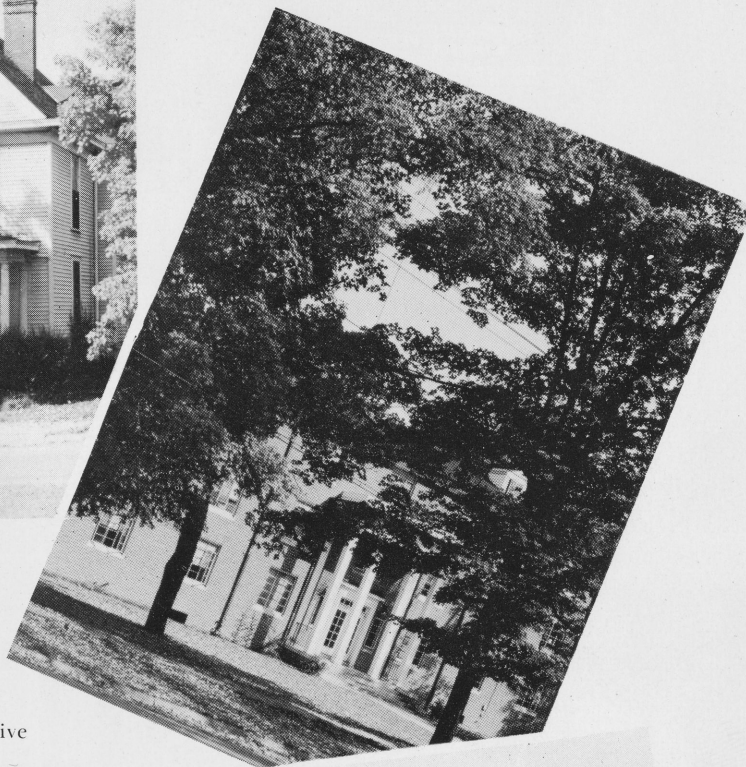

Tennessee Hall . . . Home of the resident girls.

Science building . . . Microscopes and test tubes.

Fine Arts . . . The center of Martin's cultural life.

Boys Dorm . . . Martin men live here.

Gymnasium . . . From P. E. classes to formal dances.

Martin moves

We enter these doors in the hope of gaining wisdom.

Our main purpose in coming to Martin is to learn how to think. This is achieved by learning techniques and skills which in turn develop ideals and aspirations. It is through this medium that growth can be attained and we thus become a part of Martin's move forward.

forward in

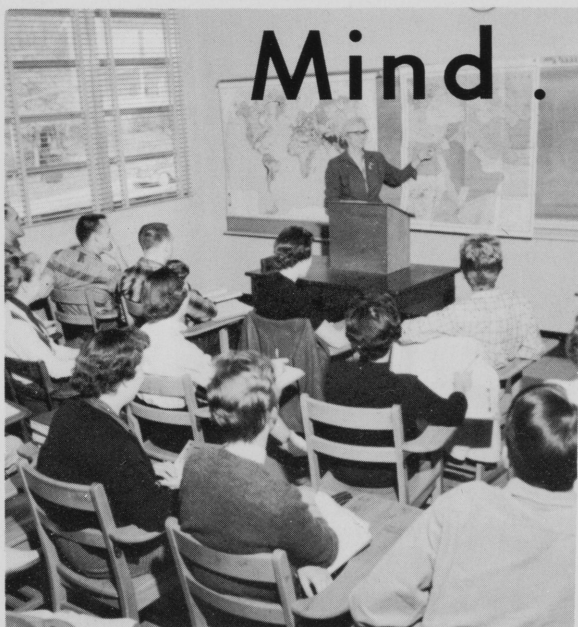

Standing together as a group, eager for the future which lies just ahead.

To listen with the intent of learning is a sure sign of growth.

All gather in the Student Union for a relaxing pause during a busy day.

Mind . . . spirit

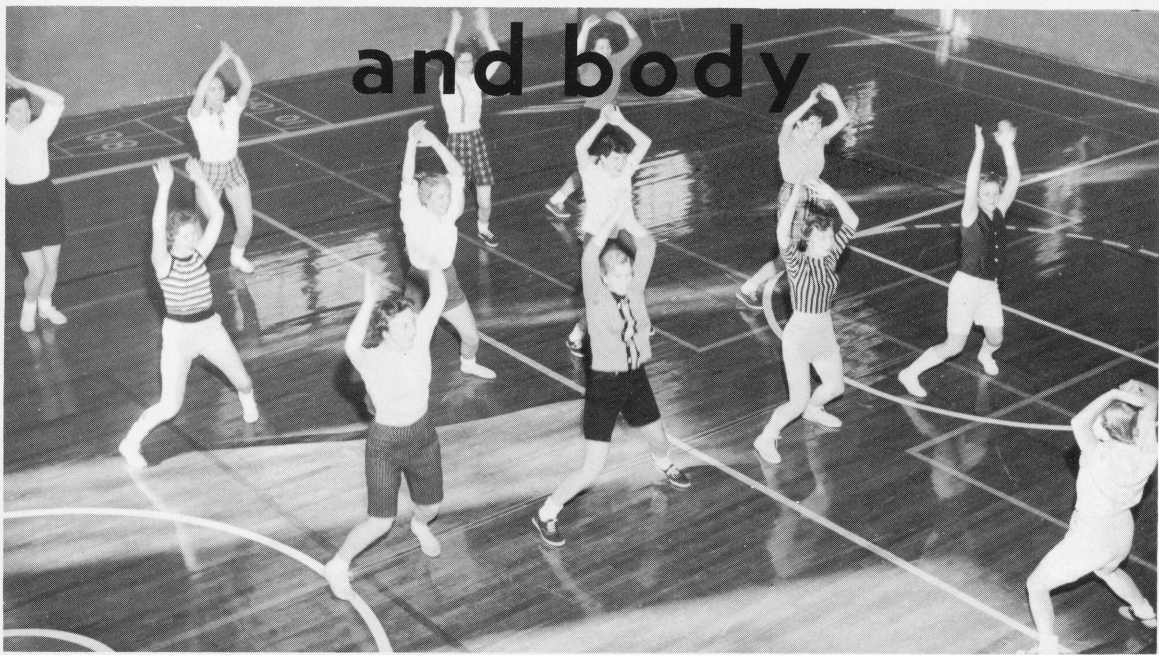

The classroom is the core of learning.

Intellectual growth requires spiritual endeavor.

The library offers to the curious a deeper understanding of our culture and inheritance.

MARTINAIRE

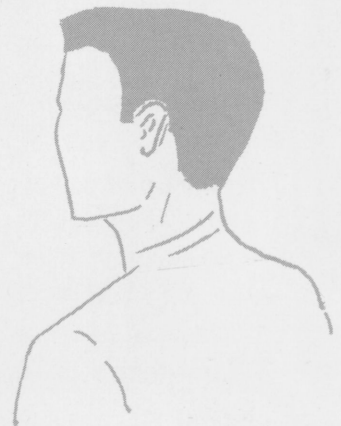

Dedication

Now, in a changing world, the minds as well as the hearts of youth need to be dedicated to the high ideals found in Christianity. Thus the role of the Christian College Campus where these ideals are emphasized, is an important one.

May Martin ever move forward toward the goal of Christian Higher Education, and it is to the advancement of this great force in a sometimes negative world that we dedicate this 1958 edition of the MARTINAIRE.

President J. Fort Fowler
B.S., Milligan College; B.D., M.A.
Vanderbilt University

To the Students of Martin College:

The senior class of Martin passed through a very crucial period in the history of the College. The movement from makeshift accommodations into a very functional administration building has made a marked difference in the spirit of the school. Meanwhile, friends of the school are moving to a successful conclusion of the Million for Martin Campaign.

Juniors will have the privilege of being the first class to graduate after having spent two full years in the new quarters.

A new day is coming for Martin. Patrons, friends, alumni, faculty, and students will have a share in making it possible for this school to be numbered among the great colleges of our land.

Best of good wishes to all.

Sincerely,

J. Fort Fowler

Student Christian Association

The Student Christian Association is a campus-wide, interdenominational organization. Its purposes are to encourage the personal religious beliefs of every student, to lead each to the church of his choice, and to integrate the various groups on the campus into a genuine Christian community.

The S.C.A. sponsors monthly a student-faculty coffee hour which provides for free eats and friendly chats.

Singers + director + accompanist \times rehearsals = the finished product—the Martin College Chorus.

Members of the cast included Carolyn Seals, Wendell Gore, Sarah Edney, Johnny Murphree, Ernest Tarpley, Marvine Smith, Carolyn Duke, John Mingus.

The purposes of the Dramatic Club are to stimulate interest in the dramatic activities of Martin College, and to secure for those who are worthy, a membership in the national Delta Psi Omega Dramatic Fraternity.

Martin Hall appears calm and serene in this beautiful snow scene, but although the weather outside was delightful, classes had to go on just the same.

Tennessee Hall, scene of such congregations as this . . . waiting like birds in the wilderness for the dinner bell to chime.

The Tuesday twilight treks to the Hewitt home for visiting and Vespers with the ladies — an inspiration to all.

The Recreation Room is quickly converted into an atmosphere of worship while Barbara Easley leads one of the weekly Vesper Services held there.

Grand Central Station could not have been busier . . .

Moments of anticipation — mail call! Any old letters today . . . please?

Alumni, faculty, and students look forward to the lovely reception given annually by the President and his wife.

The receiving line at the President's Reception provides the opportunity for students and faculty to become acquainted.

The student union — basic headquarters in Martin Hall for a midmorning snack or a friendly chat between classes.

Can you spot a genius at work?

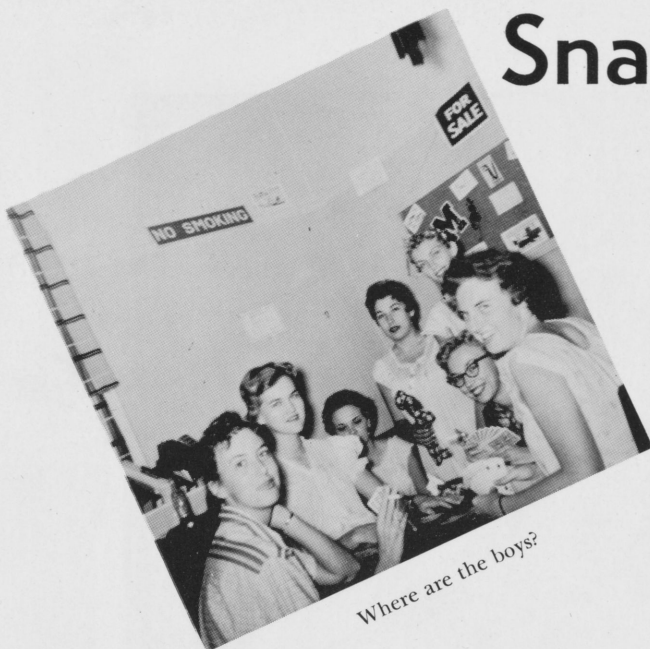

The Kiddie Party is an initiation program in which every freshman and new faculty member dresses as a child. As a climax, a king and a queen are crowned. This proves to be a night of fun and laughter for all . . . especially for the Sophomores.

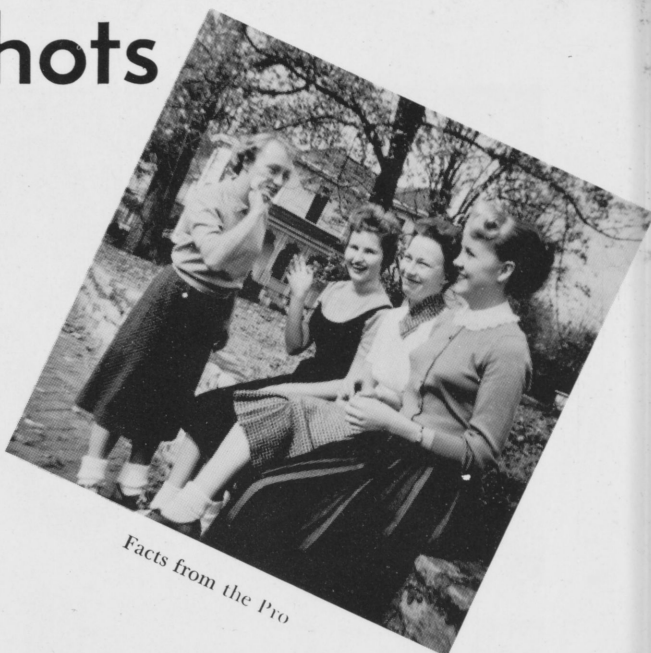

Martin College students and their dates dance to the dreamy music of "Blue Moon" melodized by the Tech Troubadours at their January formal dance.

Alma Mater

Let us greet our dear old college

With a hearty cheer!

For our hearts are ever loyal,

Alma Mater dear.

We're the students of Old Martin,

College old and dear,

With our faces all set onward

Voices ringing clear.

Stand the fiercer about us lying,

For a noble life we try

Sing, young men, our praises

Raise the flag on high.

Though our bonds can ne'er be broken,

Sealed by friendship's tie,

Our true hearts will ever cherish

Our Alma Mater.
